EML PAYMENTS SHARE HOLDER CLASS ACTION
PAUL LEIGHTON MUMFORD AND GAYLE MUMFORD
V
EML PAYMENTS LIMITED
(S ECI 2021 04738)

IMPORTANT COURT NOTICE

This is an important notice that the Supreme Court of Victoria has ordered to be published and distributed to group members on whose behalf this class action is brought and who may be affected by it.

You should read this notice carefully as it may affect your legal rights. Any questions you have concerning this notice should not be directed to the Supreme Court of Victoria. If there is anything in this notice that you do not understand, you should seek legal advice.

A class action has been commenced by Mr Mumford and Mrs Mumford (the Plaintiffs) in the Supreme Court of Victoria against EML Payments Limited (EML).

The EML Class Action alleges that between 19 December 2020 and 25 July 2022, EML made misleading or deceptive representations and failed to comply with its continuous disclosure obligations as an ASX listed company, breaching relevant provisions of Australian law.

EML denies these allegations and is defending the class action.

Unless it is settled earlier, the trial for the EML Class Action will start on 4 August 2025.

You have received this notice because you may be a group member in the EML Class Action.

Schedule 1

As explained below, you may do one of three things in response to this notice:

1. Register for the class action by 4pm AEDT on 24 February 2025 by completing the Group Member Registration Form online via the Shine Lawyers website at <https://emlpaymentsshareholderclassaction.shine.com.au/Registration> and be eligible to receive monetary compensation from any settlement reached between the parties before the first day of trial and subsequently approved by the Court; or
2. Do nothing and remain a group member, but not be eligible to receive monetary compensation from any settlement reached between the parties before the first day of trial and subsequently approved by the Court; or
3. Opt out of the class action by 4pm AEDT on 24 February 2025 by completing the Online Opt Out Notice on the Supreme Court website at <https://www.supremecourt.vic.gov.au/areas/group-proceedings/eml-payments/opting-out> or completing the Opt Out Notice at Annexure B of this Notice and returning a completed copy to the Supreme Court by email or post. If you opt out of the EML Class Action, you will lose the right to any monetary compensation from any settlement reached between the parties and subsequently approved by the Court, or from any judgment by the Court, but keep your right to seek compensation in an action you may start yourself or in which you may participate.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT THE EML CLASS ACTION

A. What is the EML Class Action?

1. The EML Class Action alleges that between 19 December 2020 to 25 July 2022 inclusive (the Relevant Period), EML:
 - a. breached its continuous disclosure obligations in failing to inform the ASX of information relating to alleged failings and deficiencies in PFS Card Services Ireland Limited's (EML's wholly owned subsidiary) Anti-Money Laundering / Counter Terrorism Financing risk and control frameworks and governance and the potential regulatory consequences that could follow where such failings were found to be substantiated by the relevant regulator in the Republic of Ireland, the Central Bank of Ireland; and

Schedule 1

- b. engaged in conduct which was misleading or deceptive, or likely to mislead or deceive, by making representations regarding the adequacy of its AML/CTF frameworks and governance; and
 - c. engaged in conduct that was misleading or deceptive and/or in contravention of its continuous disclosure obligations in relation to the time and cost of remediating the AML/CTF control frameworks following intervention by the CBI.
2. The EML Class Action alleges that group members suffered loss as a result of these alleged breaches.
 3. EML denies the claims made against it and is defending the EML Class Action.
 4. The detailed allegations and defences are set out in the parties pleadings. A copy of these documents is available at <https://www.shine.com.au/service/class-actions/eml-payments-shareholder-class-action>.

B. Are you a group member?

5. You are a group member in the EML Class Action if:

Schedule 1

C. What are your options?

7. If you are a group member in this class action, you have the following options:

Option 1: Register by 4pm AEDT on 24 February 2025

Group members who wish to receive compensation from any settlement that may be reached before the first day of trial must register their claim by 4pm AEDT on 24 February 2025 with Shine Lawyers. To register, group members must complete the Group Member Registration Form online via the Shine Lawyers website at <https://emlpaymentsshareholderclassaction.shine.com.au/Registration>.

If you are unable to register online, you can also register by completing and returning the form at Annexure A to Shine Lawyers via post or email by 4pm AEDT on 24 February 2025.

If you have previously registered with Shine Lawyers and provided details of your claim, you do not have to register again. You will be contacted directly if you need to provide further information.

Option 2: Do Nothing

If you do nothing, you will remain a group member and remain bound by any order, judgment or settlement in the EML Class Action.

However, if you do not register by 4pm AEDT on 24 February 2025, you will not be entitled to share in any settlement money that may be achieved before the first day of trial. If the class action is settled, you may lose your right to seek compensation from EML in relation to the same (or similar) claims alleged in any class action.

If the class action is not settled, group members who have not registered may be given another opportunity to register in the event of a successful outcome following trial.

To be eligible to share in any settlement money that may be achieved before the first day of trial, you must register by 4pm AEDT on 24 February 2025.

Option 3: Opt Out

If you do not wish to be a group member you can remove yourself by opting out of the class action by 4pm AEDT on 24 February 2025. To opt out, you must:

Schedule 1

- a) complete the 'Opt Out Notice' located at Annexure B of this Notice and return the completed notice to the Commercial Court Registry of the Supreme Court of Victoria by email or post at the addresses on the Notice; or
- b) complete and submit the 'Online Opt Out Notice' through the Supreme Court of Victoria website at: <https://www.supremecourt.vic.gov.au/areas/group-proceedings/eml-payments/opting-out> before 4pm AEDT on 24 February 2025.

If you opt out, then you will:

- a. cease to be a group member;
- b. will not be affected by any orders made in the class action and will not receive any money from the class action if it succeeds or settles; and
- c. be able to commence your own claim against EML.

If you wish to bring your own claim against EML, you should seek independent legal advice as a matter of urgency because there are strict time limits to commence any such claim.

FURTHER INFORMATION ABOUT CLASS ACTION PROCEEDINGS

D. What is a class action?

8. A class action, also known as a group proceeding, is an action that is brought by one or more plaintiff(s) on behalf of themselves and group members against one or more defendant(s), where the plaintiff(s) and the group members have similar claims against the defendant(s).
9. Group members are bound by any judgment or settlement entered into in the class action unless they choose not to participate by "opting out" of the proceeding. This means that:
 - a. if the class action is successful, registered group members may be eligible for a share of any settlement monies or Court-awarded damages;
 - b. if the class action is unsuccessful, group members are bound by that result; and

Schedule 1

- c. regardless of the outcome of the class action, group members will not be able to pursue their claims against the defendant(s) in separate legal proceedings unless they have opted out.
10. If you consider that you have a claim against EML based on your individual circumstances or otherwise additional to the claims described in the EML Class Action, it is important that you seek independent legal advice about the potential binding effects of the class action before the deadline for opting out.

E. What is registration?

11. To be eligible to share in any settlement that may be achieved before the first day of trial, you must register by 4pm AEDT on 24 February 2025.
12. You can register by providing your name, contact details, and information about your relevant trading in EML shares at <https://emlpaymentsshareholderclassaction.shine.com.au/Registration>.
13. Registration gives the parties information about the value of all the claims of group members who seek to share in compensation from any settlement. This information assists the parties to determine a fair and reasonable settlement.
14. Registering does not mean you enter into a contract for Shine Lawyers to represent you.
15. There are only two possible outcomes for registered group members:
 - a. in the event of a successful mediation or trial, and assuming you meet all eligibility criteria, you are entitled to receive a share of the settlement or award of damages, with a single fee (described further below) deducted from the total settlement or award of damages for legal costs to be paid to Shine Lawyers for running the class action; or
 - b. in the event of an unsuccessful mediation or trial, the class action and your claim as a group member is unsuccessful. If this happens, you will not be liable for legal costs or required to pay anything.

F. What is opt-out?

16. The plaintiff(s) in class actions do not need to seek the consent of group members to commence a class action on their behalf. However, group members can cease to be group members by “opting out” of the proceeding. If you are a group member in the EML Class Action but you do not want to continue to be a group member, you can opt out now.

17. If you opt out of the EML Class Action, you:
- a. will not be affected by any orders made in the EML Class Action or by any settlement reached between the parties;
 - b. will not be permitted to receive any distribution from any damages award or settlement outcome arising from the EML Class Action; and
 - c. will be able to commence separate proceedings against EML on your own behalf if you so wish (subject to any applicable time limits).

G. Will you be liable for legal costs?

18. You will not become liable for any out-of-pocket legal costs by remaining a group member or by registering in this class action.
19. The Supreme Court of Victoria has ordered that the legal costs payable to the solicitors for the Plaintiffs will be 24.5% (incl. GST) of the amount of any award of damages or settlement in the proceeding. This order is subject to review by the Court in the event of a successful outcome.
20. Group members will not be exposed to any out of pocket costs as a result of participating in the proceeding. If the class action is unsuccessful, group members will have no liability for legal costs and will not be required to pay anything.
